ACCOUNTS PAYABLE PAYMENT METHOD POLICY

Policy Statement

The university’s preferred method for making payments to commercial suppliers, and for issuing reimbursement to employees, is via electronic payment (i.e. Automated Clearing House (ACH)). At the university’s discretion payments may be made by wire transfer. Paper check distribution is available, though subject to restrictions.

Reason for Policy/Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to promote electronic payment as a more secure, timely and cost effective method for issuing payments to suppliers and reimbursements to employees.

Policy/Procedures

The university's preferred method for paying commercial suppliers, and for issuing personal and travel reimbursements to employees is via electronic payment (ACH). At the university's discretion payments may be made by wire transfer.

Electronic payments to suppliers will be made through the ACH, with deposits normally made to the supplier's account at their financial institution according to the agreed upon payment terms with the supplier. Personal and travel reimbursements to GW employees whose payroll method is Direct Deposit will have all reimbursements paid via ACH to that same bank account.

Payments to suppliers via paper check normally are mailed to the supplier's address as indicated on the supplier's invoice. Payment terms, unless agreed to otherwise, are Net 30 Days. GW employees whose payroll method is paper check will receive personal and travel reimbursements via paper check sent by mail to their home address.

For security reasons the university strongly discourages "Hold for Pickup" of paper checks. Exceptions must be approved in advance by the Director of Accounts Payable Services or his/her designee. Where Hold for Pickup is authorized, persons picking up a check must show proper identification (i.e., GW ID, Driver's License, etc.) and sign for the check. Checks are generally available the day after processing at the Faculty Staff Service Center, Rice Hall, 2121 Eye Street, Room 101 and following notification that they are ready for pick-up.
